Account books for depreciation pay, 1785-1792

Identifier: TR1/2785X

Extent: 0.5 cubic feet (2 volumes in 1 box)
Arranged: Arranged chronologically.
Notes: Series consists of two volumes listing the issuing of depreciation payment by the treasurer. Volumes are organized by treasurer; v. 1 contains accounts from the term of Thomas Ivers (1782-1787), v. 2 contains those of Alexander Hodgdon (1787-1792), including abstracts of accounts unpaid by Ivers. Warrants authorized soldiers to receive depreciation notes from the treasurer. Soldiers paid as a result of a resolution by the General Court, rather than a warrant, are also included in the accounts. Both volumes are organized by warrant no.

Vol. 1, from the term of Treasurer Ivers, has entries including the name and regiment of each soldier, amounts awarded per year based on term of service, total amount paid, and signature of the recipient, either the soldier or a third party. Notes still unissued at the end of Thomas Ivers's term, April 1787, were abstracted to Treasurer Hodgdon. Series includes warrant 239 issued to Sarah Ray, a hospital matron who served from 1777 to 1780. Orders from soldiers requesting these payments, arranged by regiment and thereunder alphabetically, and corresponding warrants issued can be found in: Orders and warrants for depreciation notes for service in the Continental Army, 1780-1789 (TR1/585X).

Vol. 2, from the term of Treasurer Hodgdon, consists of five sections, the first two related to depreciation notes and the other three to payment of specie notes. Section 1 lists abstracted warrants for notes unissued at the end of Treasurer Ivers's term, Apr. 11, 1787. The second section lists the warrants for depreciation notes paid out by Treasurer Hodgdon. Accounts include the name and regiment of each soldier, amount paid, and signature of the recipient. Warrants unpaid at the end of Treasurer Hodgdon's term were abstracted to Treasurer Thomas Davis.

The last three sections of v. 2 constitute the final section of: Register of Army specie notes issued, 1782 (TR1/2282X), from the terms of treasurers Ivers and Hodgdon (Anderson MA 29-30). --For volumes listing the entirety of the depreciation commodity notes issued by Treasurer Ivers, organized by year of payment, 1781-1788, see: Register of depreciation notes issued, 1780 (TR1/2272X). For additional background on the total depreciation payment owed to each soldier, arranged by regiment, see: Massachusetts. Office of the Secretary of State. Certificates of depreciation payment to the Continental Army, 1777-1785 (SC1/58X).
