

Stand Up! Be Counted!

Did You Know?

Census data is confidential.

- Your personal information is protected by law and is never released to any other local, state, or federal agencies (Title 13 of the U.S. Code).
- The Census Bureau will never ask for your Social Security number, bank account number, or money of any kind.

Census data affects your community.

- Census data determines federal and state funding to programs like SNAP, Section 8 Housing, and Title I Grants.
- The data collected by the U.S. Census will determine your political representation for the next 10 years at the local, state, and federal levels.
- Census data affects public transportation. Planners use the data to determine where to add or remove transit stops and plan the frequency of service.

Responding to the Census is easy.

- You can respond to the U.S. Census online and over the phone in 13 languages, or wait for the paper form to be delivered to you.
