

Stand Up! Be Counted!

Did You Know?

Census data is confidential.

- Your personal information is protected by law (Title 13 of the U.S. Code) and is never released to any other local, state, or federal agencies.
- Your responses will not be shared with your landlord. You must list everyone who lives in your residence on the Census form, including out-of-state and international students.

Census data affects your community.

- The data collected by the U.S. Census will determine your political representation for the next 10 years at the local, state, and federal levels.
- Census data determines how much money goes into the Federal Pell Grant Program for Massachusetts undergraduate students.
- Census data affects public transportation. Planners use the data to determine where to add or remove transit stops, and plan the frequency of service based on population.

Responding to the Census is easy.

- You can respond to the U.S. Census online or over the phone in 13 languages, or wait for the paper form to be delivered to you.
