

User Guide

Lobbyist Registration & Reporting System

DISCLOSURE REPORTING

Filing a Disclosure Report after the deadline

Applies to all lobbyists, entities, and clients

If you miss the 2-week filing deadline, the system automatically generates alerts:

- Your account homepage displays a late notice
- The link to your next disclosure report is not visible until the late report is submitted and concluded, and all late fees are paid
- Select submit report and late fees to start

Lobbyist Registration & Reporting System

The Lobbyist Registration and Reporting System is maintained by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to provide the lobbying community with online access to all required forms and documents.

This is your account homepage
Every registered online account has a private secure area. The homepage displays your status and provides a menu of specific tasks available to you.

Your data is not available to the public until your documents are submitted to the Lobbyist Division and concluded.

Welcome, Client Test

- Your 2013 registration is concluded.
- Your disclosure report for the January - June 2013 reporting period is late.
- Complete and submit promptly - late fees will be charged daily until your report is submitted.
- The link to your disclosure report for the July - December 2013 reporting period will not be available until the prior report is submitted and concluded.

Registration	Disclosure Reports
2013 Registration Concluded <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Update registration• Apply for waiver• Terminate a lobbying relationship• View or print a copy• Payment history	January - June 2013 Report and late fee due Start report July - December 2013 Link not available

Registration and disclosure reporting are governed by Mass. General Laws, Chapter 3, Sections 39 through 50.

Contact the Lobbyist Division at 617-727-9122 if you require account assistance
This office can answer questions about using the online system, or provide technical assistance with the registration or disclosure reporting process.

▪

Filing a late disclosure report

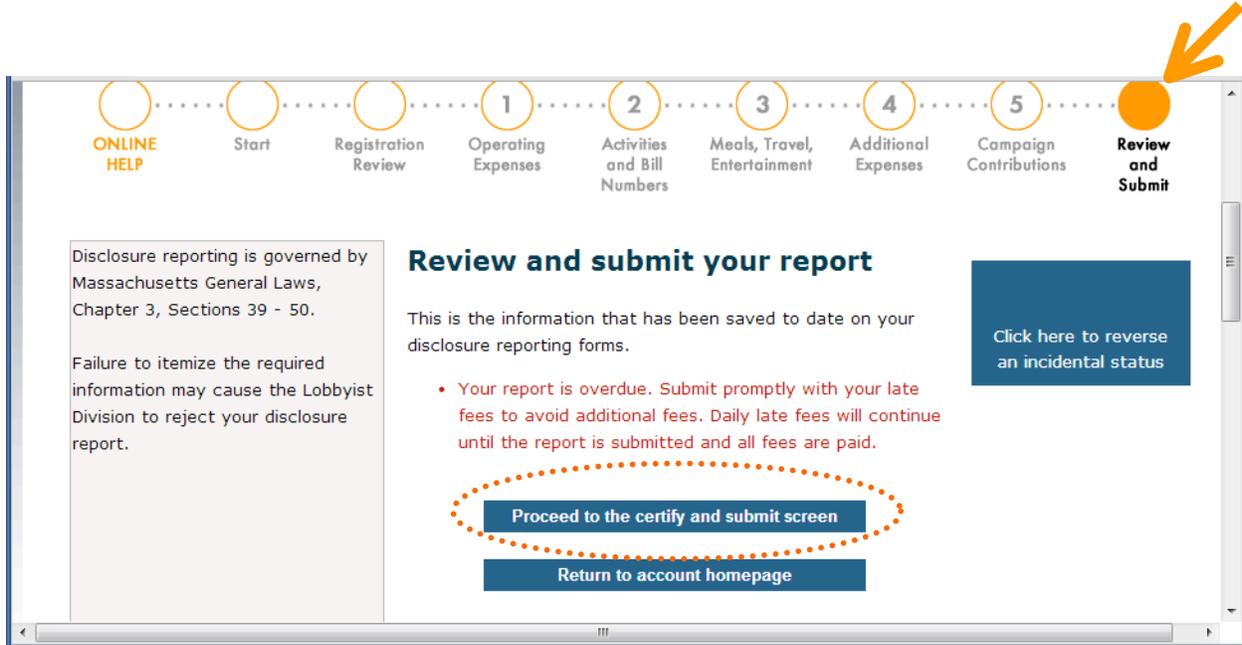

Fill out all forms as required

- If you need instructions for filling out the forms, go back to online help table of contents and select the link to the instructions for your account type.

Review and submit

- Review the information entered on your forms for accuracy and completeness
- Select the link to proceed to the certify and submit screen
- This action will display the payment screen

>> Late fees continue to accrue until payment is received by the Lobbyist Division.

The screenshot shows a progress bar at the top with seven steps: ONLINE HELP, Start, Registration Review, Operating Expenses (1), Activities and Bill Numbers (2), Meals, Travel, Entertainment (3), Additional Expenses (4), Campaign Contributions (5), and Review and Submit. An orange arrow points to the 'Review and Submit' step, which is highlighted with a solid orange circle. Below the progress bar, the main content area is titled 'Review and submit your report'. On the left, there is a text box with legal information: 'Disclosure reporting is governed by Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 3, Sections 39 - 50. Failure to itemize the required information may cause the Lobbyist Division to reject your disclosure report.' The main text states: 'This is the information that has been saved to date on your disclosure reporting forms.' A red bullet point reads: 'Your report is overdue. Submit promptly with your late fees to avoid additional fees. Daily late fees will continue until the report is submitted and all fees are paid.' There are three buttons: 'Click here to reverse an incidental status' (top right), 'Proceed to the certify and submit screen' (center, circled in orange), and 'Return to account homepage' (bottom center).

Filing a late disclosure report

Payment

- The payment screen displays the reason for the payment, amount due, and payment choices
- Pay online for immediate submission to the Lobbyist Division

Registration Filing Fees

Lobbyist	$100
Lobbyist Entity	$1,000, plus $100 for each sub-agent registered
Client	$100 for each lobbying relationship registered

Disclosure Report late fees

$50 / day Up to 20 days

$100 / day After 20 days, and until the report is submitted and all late fees paid

Payment is now due:

Reason Late fee for filing a disclosure report after the deadline

Late fees will continue to accrue each day until this report is submitted and all fees paid

Account Sandra Berardi

Number of days late:	99
Total amount due:	$8,900.00

Select a payment method:

Pay Online Use an e-check, MasterCard, Visa, or American Express. An expedited fee is added at time of payment.

For assistance

If you have any questions about making a payment, contact the Lobbyist Division at 617-727-9122.

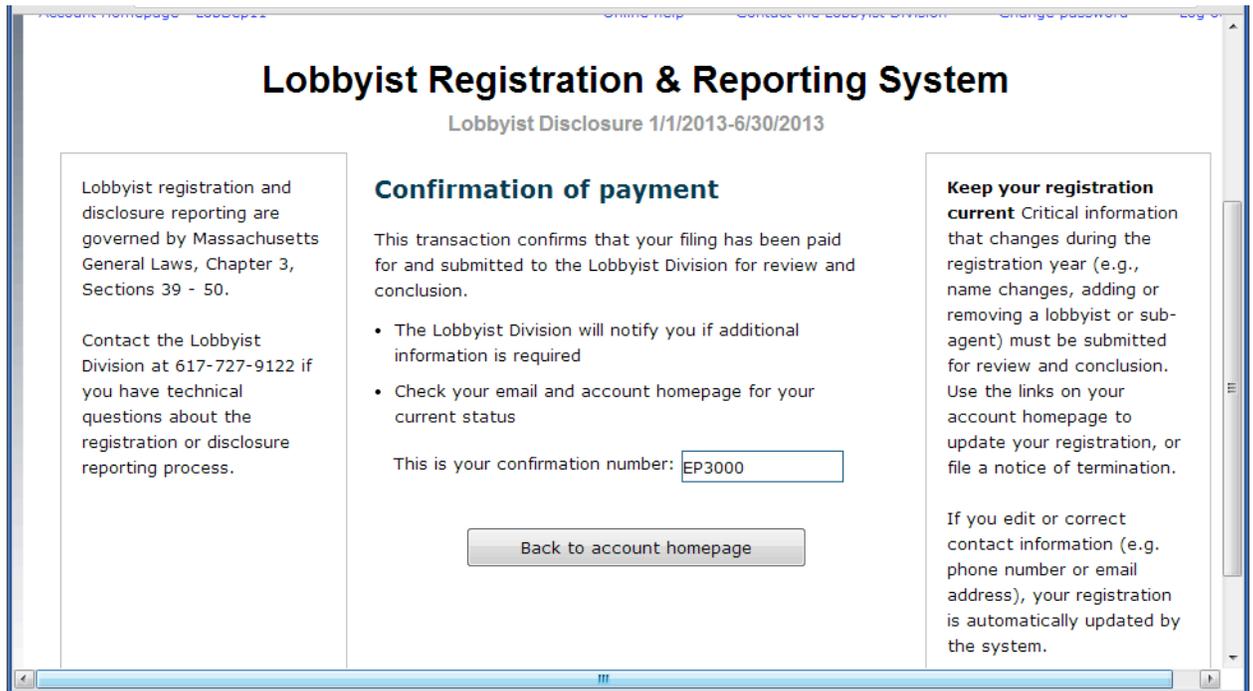

Registration and disclosure reporting are governed by Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 3, Sections 39 - 50.

The screen images displayed throughout the online help documents do not represent accurate reporting and submission dates, or actual lobbyists, entities, or clients. The information contained within these sample screens is strictly intended for instructional purposes only.

Paying a late fee by credit card or e-check

If you select an online option, the system stops generating daily late fees once your payment is successfully transmitted.

- The confirmation screen shows the Lobbyist Division received your disclosure report and late fee, and will begin the review process

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the "Lobbyist Registration & Reporting System" confirmation page. The page title is "Lobbyist Registration & Reporting System" with a subtitle "Lobbyist Disclosure 1/1/2013-6/30/2013". The page is divided into three main sections:

- Left Column: Contains text stating that lobbyist registration and disclosure reporting are governed by Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 3, Sections 39 - 50. It also provides contact information for the Lobbyist Division at 617-727-9122 for technical questions.
- Center Column: Features a heading "Confirmation of payment" and a paragraph confirming that the filing has been paid for and submitted to the Lobbyist Division. Below this, there are two bullet points: "The Lobbyist Division will notify you if additional information is required" and "Check your email and account homepage for your current status". A confirmation number "EP3000" is displayed in a text box, and a "Back to account homepage" button is located at the bottom of this section.
- Right Column: Contains a heading "Keep your registration current" and text explaining that critical information changes during the registration year must be submitted for review. It also notes that contact information updates are automatic.

The browser's address bar shows "http://www.mass.gov/lobbyist/registration/confirmation.aspx?confirmationNumber=EP3000".

Report concluded

- Your account homepage verifies that your disclosure report was submitted and concluded, and all late fees paid
- The link to your next disclosure report is now visible

William Francis Galvin
Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOME DIRECTIONS CONTACT US Search sec.state.ma.us Search

Online help Contact the Lobbyist Division Change password Log out

Lobbyist Registration & Reporting System

The Lobbyist Registration and Reporting System is maintained by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to provide the lobbying community with online access to all required forms and documents.

This is your account homepage
Every registered online account has a private secure area. The homepage displays your status and provides a menu of specific tasks available to you.

Your data is not available to the public until your documents are submitted to the Lobbyist Division and concluded.

Welcome, Client Test

- Your 2013 registration is concluded.
- Your next disclosure report is due January 15, 2014.

Registration	Disclosure Reports
2013 Registration Concluded <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Update registration• Terminate a lobbying relationship• View or print a copy• Payment history	July - December 2013 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Start report January - June 2013 Report concluded <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Update concluded report• View or print a copy• Payment history

Registration and disclosure reporting are governed by Mass. General Laws, Chapter 3, Sections 39 through 50.

Contact the Lobbyist Division at 617-727-9122 if you require account assistance
This office can answer questions about using the online system, or provide technical assistance with the registration or disclosure reporting process.

William Francis Galvin, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Terms and Conditions